

Joshua Christopher Carter

May 20, 1987 - October 19, 2025

Josh grew up in Imperial Beach, California. He enjoyed playing Little League and was lucky enough to grow up following Tony Gwynn and the Padres and loved going to many games. He went to Bayside Elementary, graduated from SAILS OSS and attended Southwestern College.

Josh loved music. He enjoyed going to concerts. He always had music playing- loud. Traveling to distant venues to hear favorite bands was always an adventure. He loved to share bands with his Mom and partner in crime, Delia Martinez.

Josh enjoyed working at AMC Theaters, John's Incredible Pizza, Sycuan and with the Revenue Audit Team at Jamul Casino .

Josh had a great time camping and attending Ren Faire and Potrero war. Josh was a supporter of California Browncoats, both at Wonder Con and Comic Con.

Josh made good friends wherever he went.

Josh's family are Parents Catherine and Manny, twin Sister Andrea, Brother Jared and his lovable Derp Husky Eeyore, also numerous Aunts, Uncles and Cousins. We could never leave out his 2911 Family and his other CatMom. He had MANY other Sisters and Brothers from other Mothers.

“ We are deeply saddened by the loss of our friend and coworker, Josh. He was a hardworking, kind, and dedicated member of the Jamul Casino team—always eager to lend a hand and support those around him. His positivity and willingness to help others left a lasting impact on everyone who had the privilege of working with him.

Josh will be greatly missed, but his warmth and generosity will continue to inspire us. Our heartfelt condolences go out to his family, friends, and all who knew him during this difficult time.
