

Juancarlos Austreberto Cerda

April 30, 1978 - December 21, 2025

Our beloved “Toby” Juancarlos Austreberto Cerda, age 47, was called home to eternal peace on December 21, 2025, surrounded by the boundless love he so freely gave to everyone around him. Toby leaves behind a heartbroken yet grateful family who were blessed to share his beautiful life: his devoted mother, Yvonne Rene Gonzalez; his cherished father, Juan Jose Cerda; his dear brother, Aaron Alberto Gonzalez Sr.; and his soulmate and longtime life partner, Lumduon Own Prom, whose hearts he filled with endless joy and tenderness every single day. Toby was the most generous and big-hearted soul anyone could ever know. His greatest happiness came from showering his loved ones with unforgettable moments—sweeping them away on thrilling adventures, treating them to spectacular live entertainment, and creating memories that will live forever in their hearts. He had a magical way of making every person feel truly seen, cherished, and special. As a deeply loving uncle, he poured endless affection into his nephews, Aaron Alberto Gonzalez Jr. and Ivan Rene Gonzalez, lighting up their worlds with his warmth, laughter, and playful spirit. People didn’t just enjoy Toby’s company—they craved it. His radiant smile, infectious good cheer, and boundless kindness drew everyone to him like a beacon of pure joy. Toby was love personified, the heart of every gathering, and a gift to all who knew him. Though our hearts ache with his absence, we are forever grateful for the extraordinary love he gave so freely. Toby will be loved, missed, and celebrated every single day until we meet again. Rest in the sweetest peace, our dear Toby—you were, and always will be, deeply, deeply loved
