

Nicolasa Ilagan Henry

December 6, 1945 - December 28, 2025

Nicolasa "Nicole" Ilagan Henry, 80, of San Diego, California, passed away peacefully on December 28, 2025.

Born on December 6, 1945, in Bohol, Philippines to Mario Ilagan and Paula Serenio, Nicole immigrated to the United States, where she built a life dedicated to hard work and family. She spent almost 20 years in customer service within the laundry industry, known for her reliability and kind demeanor.

Nicole was a proud Filipino-American, a devoted mother, and a loving grandmother. She was the life of the party, throwing memorable family gatherings that brought everyone together in joy and laughter. Her devotion to her children and grandbabies was profound and unwavering. She loved to sing and dance, tend to her garden, and care for animals, always with her contagious laugh and radiant smile lighting up the room. She was preceded in death by her spouse, Walter Franklin Henry (1943-1989). She is survived by her children, Walter, Will, Seena, William, and Lori; her cherished grandchildren, Chris, Kareena, Zaccheus, and Joshua; her great-grandchild,

Audrey; along with other family members and friends.

A memorial will be held on January 9, 2026, from 2-6 pm at Tenth Street Church of Christ, 640 10th Street, Imperial Beach, CA 91932. The family requests privacy during this period of mourning and suggests that those wishing to honor her memory do so through acts of kindness in their communities.
