In Loving Memory of Rafael Lozano Segura

February 3rd, 1936 – June 29th, 2025

Rafael Lozano Segura, beloved father, grandfather, great-grandfather, great great grandfather and cherished friend, passed away peacefully at the age of 89, surrounded by the family he loved so dearly.

Born on February 3, 1936, in Mexico City, Mexico, Rafael lived a life defined by purpose, integrity, and endless curiosity. A man of remarkable strength and unwavering dedication, he proudly served in both the Mexican military and the United States military, including during the Guam conflict. His service was a reflection of his deep sense of duty, patriotism, and courage.

A master tailor by profession, Rafael found immense joy in his craft. He poured passion into each creation, earning the admiration of colleagues and clients alike for his artistry, attention to detail, and unmatched work ethic. His hands shaped not only fine garments, but a legacy of excellence that his family treasures to this day.

But Rafael's life extended far beyond his work. He was a lifelong learner with a deep love for the world around him. Endlessly curious, he continued to educate himself throughout his life—reading, exploring, questioning, and growing. He was fascinated by history and aviation, often losing himself in museums where he could walk through time, studying the great figures and events that shaped the world.

An avid traveler and true citizen of the world, Rafael delighted in visiting new places, especially coastal destinations where he could feel the ocean breeze. The sea, to him, was a place of reflection, freedom, and peace.

A lover of the arts, Rafael was an opera enthusiast and a devoted fan of classical music, especially the powerful voice of Andrea Bocelli, whose music brought him immense comfort and joy. Music filled his soul and added rhythm and richness to his every day.

Though strong and resilient, Rafael was above all else, a kind and loving man. He gave generously, listened deeply, and loved with a quiet yet powerful presence. He was a rock for his family, a wise guide, and a compassionate soul who left everyone he met better than he found them.

Rafael is survived by his children and their spouses, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, great great grandfather each of whom he loved deeply and who carry on his spirit:

Rafael Lozano Segura lived a life of intention, compassion, and beauty. He will be remembered not only for the work he did, but for the love he gave, the wisdom he shared, and the example he set. His legacy will live on in every note of music, in every ripple of the ocean, in every act of kindness.

He now joins his beloved wife, Maria Guadalupe Alvarado Segura, where they will eternally rest in peace together.

They will always be loved and never forgotten.
